
union members?

Posted by bebopreporter - 2008/02/11 05:25

I was wondering if any officials out there were members of a union for their respective counties. If so, please respond so I can get an idea if most of you are satisfied with your contracts and/or negotiations; what, if anything, would you change. I would greatly appreciate it!

Thanks in advance.

=====

Re:union members?

Posted by ctrptr - 2008/02/11 11:38

Hi, Rebecca.

I know for a fact that Schuylkill County court reporters are unionized.

Lillian

=====

Re:union members?

Posted by Berardinelli - 2008/02/13 14:01

Hi, Rebecca.

First, I'd like to thank you for checking into the Forum! I hope you find it useful.

I am an official in Phila. We are not unionized. We do have an association (Philadelphia Official Court Reporters Association) that works on our behalf when issues arise. You may have read about the mandamus-to-pension program that POCRA negotiated in the December edition of the Outline.

Good luck with your information gathering.

Bernadette

=====

Re:union members?

Posted by Sherry - 2008/02/20 12:41

Hi, Rebecca,

I am an official at the Montgomery County Courthouse, and we are not unionized. I know that Bucks County does have a union, and I do know a few officials there if you need some feedback.

Good luck.

Michele Sherry

=====

Re:union members?

Posted by bebopreporter - 2008/02/21 03:22

I would really appreciate some feedback from anyone you know in Bucks. My steward says she thinks they have a pretty good contract but would like some more info, if possible.

=====

Re:union members?

Posted by Sherry - 2008/02/21 15:00

Rebecca,

You can reach me at the courthouse at 610-278-3271.

Michele Sherry

=====