Court Reporters' Rates of Pay (see below)

OPEN UNTIL FILLED

POSITION OVERVIEW: The Eastern District of Pennsylvania is seeking qualified applicants for the position of a full-time, permanent Official Court Reporter. The position is located in the Clerk's Office of the U.S. District Court in Philadelphia. Occasional travel within the district may be required. Reports to the Supervisor of Court Reporters.

REPRESENTATIVE DUTIES:

- An Official Court Reporter will be assigned to cover court proceedings as assigned for active and senior district judges.
- Attending and recording verbatim all proceedings as directed by the court; reading back all or any portion of the court record; reviewing the court calendar and noting the appearance of attorneys, witnesses and the proper spelling of their names; producing transcripts within strict time limitations; billing, delivering and/or mailing official transcripts prepared; certifying and filing with the Clerk of Court original records and a copy of transcripts prepared; covering other courts as needed.
- Incumbents will provide transcripts within the time and cost limitations set by the Judicial Conference; and will concurrently electronically file with the Clerk of Court a copy of all transcripts prepared.
- Must work well under pressure, including extended court and transcription production hours within strict time limitations.
- Work as part of a team of reporters for the judges of the Eastern District of Pennsylvania.
- Perform administrative duties as required, such as billing for transcripts, financial and other record keeping, preparation and filing of required Administrative Office reports, and responding to official correspondence and telephone calls.
- All other duties as assigned.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS:

Only applicants meeting the following qualification requirements will be considered:

- Four (4) years of prime stenographic court reporting experience in the freelance field of service, in other courts, or a combination thereof (e.g. depositions, adversary proceedings before a presiding official, grand jury proceedings);
- Successful completion of the Registered Professional Reporter (RPR) exam of the National Court Reporters Association (NCRA) or United States Court Reporters Association (USCRA);
- Realtime certification is preferred; special consideration will be extended to Registered Professional Reporters and reporters who possess a Certificate of Merit from the NCRA or USCRA;
- Skilled in the use of computer-aided transcription equipment (CAT);
- Possess and provide all necessary personal equipment and software including up-to-date software and hardware used to produce Realtime transcripts in the courtroom.
